2026 NEWSLETTER

From the Pastor's Desk May 2026

*"Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples."
-Psalm 96:3*

"What's your story?"

More times than not, my phone conversations with my brother begin with those words. I don't remember when it started, but at some point, it became a common way for us to greet one another, especially if we hadn't talked for a week or longer. It is fitting, of course. The conversations that ensue generally consist of each of us telling the other our story – what has happened to each of us in the past week, or since the last time we may have talked, how we feel about those things, and things that we might have to do in response.

The church has a story to tell, too. It is the story we find in the Bible – an account of God's redeeming acts throughout history and in the world today. During this month, as the season of Easter continues, our Sunday mornings will explore what the story of the resurrection means for us today: how Jesus appears to us, what his promises to us are, and how he continues to work in the world today.

But that story is ongoing and will not end at the end of the Easter season, nor is it the only story we have to tell. It intersects with the story of St. Luke Church as a congregation in the ELCA, through our worship, through our preschool, and support of local and global ministries. It is woven through our own stories as individuals, with all of the challenges, crises, and joys that come with life. And it is integrated into the story of our community, with all of its needs, challenges, and opportunities.

During the coming months and beyond, it is my intention to focus on helping us to better tell all of the stories that are part of our lives. I firmly believe that when we can see where God's story intersects with ours and those of "the other", we will truly see God at work.

So ... what's your story? I'd love to hear it, and I'm not the only one.

OLD IMMANUEL

Old Immanuel Lutheran Church, the "mother" church of Lutheranism in Lycoming County, will be holding its annual Memorial Service on Sunday, June 14, 2026, at 2:30 pm. The Rev. Amy Shuck, pastor of First Lutheran Church, Watsontown, will be officiating along with our country's 250th birthday, we will be celebrating 235 years of Old Immanuel, the oldest Lutheran church in Lycoming County! Please plan on joining us!!

Old Immanuel is considered to be the mother church of Lutheranism in Lycoming County. Founded in 1791, it lived until its doors shut permanently in 1920. The first structure built on the property was of log; the second and third (the current) structures were of brick. The current building was dedicated in 1869, and contains two cornerstones, one in German dated 1832, and one in English dated 1869. At least 9 Revolutionary Soldiers and 5 Civil War Soldiers are buried in the historic cemetery. The church was built on land donated by Henry and Barbara Shoemaker, of "Shoemaker Mills" at the Routes 442/405 intersection.

This historic church is located at 2366 Lime Bluff Road, outside of Muncy. Please note that the church does not have running water or electricity, and is not fully handicap accessible. Recently, the church's roof has received a new coat of paint. In addition, the church's belltower has been renovated and refurbished, and all the shutters have been repaired and repainted. Further projects include restoration of the windows, walls, and ceiling. A free-will offering will be taken to help offset the cost of these and other on-going expenses.

Old Immanuel closed its doors for regular services in 1920, after giving rise to 19 other Lutheran congregations. Some have since closed their doors, but churches that continue include Trinity and Mount Zion, Hughesville; St. Andrew, Muncy; St. James, Muncy; Messiah, Clarkstown; St. John's, Gordner's Grove; St. John's (Brick), Montgomery; and Bethany, Montoursville.

The public is invited to attend this service as well as to tour the historic church. Light refreshments will be served on the church lawn after the service. For more information, or to follow Old Immanuel more closely, "Like" "Old Immanuel Lutheran Church" on FaceBook!!! Please plan on joining us for an afternoon rich in history and fellowship!

From Bishop Miller

Recently, several congregations in the Allegheny, Northwestern PA, and Upper Susquehanna Synods participated in a survey that asked one question: What do you hope for the sermon each Sunday? The survey results indicate a strong desire (almost 50%) for sermons to teach about the Bible and how to apply it in daily life. I believe that a differently worded question would have elicited even stronger support for Biblical preaching that applies to Christian living.

This survey brought me back to my time in seminary, particularly to the class on the Lutheran Confessions. I remember an assignment to write an essay on what to expect in a Lutheran sermon. I wish I could say I went back to look at what I wrote, but I have long since disposed of those old papers; but I can say with some certainty that the paper would have emphasized the proper relationship of Law and Gospel. I probably wrote something about how a good Lutheran sermon both accuses the hearers and provides the comfort of the Gospel. As some have put it: we comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable.

I have read only a few sermons by Martin Luther. In them he focuses on correct teaching and the proper understanding of faith, usually over against abuses of the church of his day. For him, the works of faith would flow naturally from those who hear the Gospel preached in its purity, that is the proper preaching of Law and Gospel. Still, at times, he felt the need to help his hearers to see what faith calls us to do, pointing to the works of Jesus on behalf of the widows and orphans, the sick, the blind, and the lame.

Go Tell It IN the Mountains offers training and resources for preachers in our three synods in an effort to improve in what we already do well. This initiative also includes goals to assist our members to become better hearers. I hope through this initiative we will all grow in our understanding of scripture and faith as we hear the Word and that we will proclaim the Good News to many as we live what we believe.

BE STRONG AND COURAGEOUS
From the banks of the Jordan River to the towering walls of Jericho, JOSHUA is a miraculous adventure for the whole family. Journey alongside the people of Israel as they navigate their new-found freedom in an unforgiving wilderness. When Joshua is called to replace Moses as their faithful leader, tensions mount in the midst of dwindling supplies and approaching armies. With one last fortified city standing between the Israelites and the Promised Land, unexpected hell emerges from behind enemy lines and Joshua's trust in God's plan is put to the ultimate test.
